

Definition: A `scalar` is a single number, as opposed to a vector or matrix. Scalars are denoted by lower case letters, e.g. a, b, c .

Scalars are elements of a `field`.

#EE501 - `Linear Systems Theory` at `METU`